

Andrew Christian McCulloch

Occupation :

WW2 position : Lieutenant Royal Navy H.M.S. Laforey. Went down with the ship, in action against a submarine off the coast of Italy.

Birth : 1915 Edinburgh.

Death : 30th March 1944 (age 28) at sea.

Buried : Named on a plaque in Anwoth Old Kirk at Anwoth Kirkyard.

Marital status : single

Parents : Major-General Sir Andrew Jameson McCulloch DSO (lawyer & landowner) & Lady McCulloch (née Esme V. MacKenzie) of Ardwall, Gatehouse of Fleet. Andrew was their third son.

Address : Lochanhead, Dumfries.

Siblings : 3 brothers including Walter J.(1906-1998), Colin J. (1908 - 1984), David St. D.(1919)

Memorials : Anwoth & Girthon War Memorial & Anwoth Church Memorial. Portsmouth Naval Memorial.

Awarded D.S.C. for 'unbroken vigilance while serving in one of H.M. ships in operations which prevented the escape of enemy forces after their defeat in North Africa.'