

Gatehouse Postal History

1808 – 29th October

Sir David Maxwell, Cardoness
Alexander Blair of Auchenreoch in Edinburgh

Postal charge was 8d.

Gatehouse collection stamp

Edinburgh receipt stamp

Dear Sir
 Cambridge 29th Oct^r 1808

I hope you & Mrs Blair get well to Edinburgh, and found your families in good health.

Messrs Hills at Dumfries has neglected to send me the Scots & Edinburgh Magazines, & Magazines commencing Jan^y 1808 and on for this year.

You will send to the publisher and receive from him the foresaid Magazines and Continue them as Directed to me Near Gatehouse of Fleet and to the Care of Mrs (Ramsons) Carrier to Gatehouse of Fleet from Dumfries and Desire the Publisher to Apply to you for payment yearly when due.

I am
 Yours very sincerely
 D. Maxwell

Dear Sir,

I hope you & Mrs Blair got well to Edinburgh, and found your family in good health.

Mess^{rs} (Hills) at Dumfries has Neglected to send me the Scots & Edinburgh monthly magazines (missalong) commencing Jan^y 1808 and on for this year.

You will send to the publisher and Receive from him the foresaid Magazines and Continue them as Directed to me Near Gatehouse of Fleet and to the Care of Mrs (Ramsons) Carrier to Gatehouse of Fleet from Dumfries and Desire the Publisher to Apply to you for payment yearly when due.

I am
 Yours very sincerely
 D. Maxwell

29th October 1808
 31

Sir D. Maxwell

wanting Scotch & Edinb Magazines from Jan 1808 - in line coming

15th Oct - 1808
 16th Jan 1808

Recipients notes