

Anwoth Old Kirk Gravestone No.020

Here lyeth Thomas Irving born of honest and religious parents in the parish of Eglpchechan in Annandale, was a good christian and careful, honest & faithfull servant for 16 years both while abroad during the wars of the glorious King William and at Bardarroch until his death in October 1711 aged about 44.