

This is clearly not a scene from the golf course, but torrential rain on Friday, December 30th 2022 resulted in a tree being uprooted and washed the flooded river Fleet, in Gatehouse of Fleet, before getting wedged on the Millennium Bridge at the Mill on the Fleet visitor centre. For safety reasons, the bridge was blocked to pedestrians until the tree could be cut up and removed.

